They whose course on earth is o'er,
Think they of their brethren more?
They before the throne who bow,
Feel they for their brethren now?

2 We, by enemies distress—
They in Paradise at rest;
We the captives—they the freed—
We and they are one indeed;

6 Each to each may be unknown,
Wide apart their lots be thrown;
Differing tongues their lips may speak,
One be strong, and one be weak;

5 But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With zeal he will not own.

5 There is plentiful redemption
In the Blood that has been shed,
There is joy for all the members
In the sorrows of the Head.

4 Those whom space on earth divides,
Mountains, rivers, ocean-tides;
Have they with each other part?
Have they fellowship in heart?

Unison.

8 So with them our hearts we raise,
Share their work and join their praise,
Rendering worship, thanks, and love
To the Trinity above.
